

Fredrik Bonthron,

Chief Economist at the Swedish Securities Markets Association (SSMA)

Fredrik is Chief Economist at the Swedish Securities Markets Association (SSMA), where he covers the economic analysis related to the Swedish capital market and the financial ecosystem as well as market-related issues including structured products and corporate bonds. Prior to joining SSMA, he built a regulatory and macroeconomic foundation through roles at the Swedish Central Bank's Financial Stability Department, the Swedish National Debt Office, and the Swedish Supervisory Authority.