

Jérôme van der Bruggen

Chief Market Strategist,
CA Indosuez Wealth Management

Jérôme van der Bruggen has been Chief Market Strategist at CA Indosuez Wealth Management since June 2025. In this role, he leads the group's team of macro strategists and investment analysts overseeing macroeconomic and market strategy, credit and equity selection, and data analysis.

Prior to this role, he spent nearly 20 years at Bank Degroof Petercam, which became part of CA Indosuez Wealth Management in August 2024. As Chief Investment Officer for Private Banking, he was responsible for investment process within the Private Banking unit.

He started his career in equity sales in 1994, working for Citigroup Global Markets and Paribas Capital Markets in London.

Jérôme van der Bruggen holds a master's degree in Economic Sciences from KU Leuven in Belgium and an MBA from INSEAD in France. He is also a guest lecturer at Vlerick Business School.

